

Material melted at CMC Steel South Carolina is produced from a minimum of 95 percent re-cycled material and is melted and manufactured in the USA.

The re-cycled material consist of 59% Post- Public Consumer generated scrap and 41% Industrial Generated Scrap.

The CMC Steel South Carolina plant is located in Cayce, South Carolina.

At a minimum, 95 percent of the material used in our operation is collected within a 500 mile radius of our facility.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Richard S. Ray'.

Richard S. Ray
Quality Assurance Manager
March-30-2006